From the Bethel Town Office

Monday evening, May 9, at the Town Office Meeting Room, the Board of Selectmen took significant steps in advancing important Town initiatives. Two projects, airport development and a change of fiscal year study, were decided by voters at the March Town Meeting, while the third project, development of police policy, was elevated to a major project status by vote of the Selectmen in February 1983.

Acting quickly on the fiscal year change study project, the Selectmen voted to accept an offer by the Buckfield Board of Selectmen to review their system of semi-annual tax billing and fiscal procedures. The Manager was directed to arrange a visit.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY HEARS OF REV. GOULD'S CAREER

Over 75 persons attended the May 5 monthly meeting of the Bethel Historical Society held in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House. The featured speaker of the evening was Margaret Joy Tibbitts, Treasurer and Chairman of the Society's Board of Trustees, who spoke on the Bethel career of Rev. Daniel Gould. Gould was born in Topsfield, Mass., Dec. 8, 1753, the oldest child of Daniel and Lucy Tarbox Gould. He graduated from Dummer Academy in Byfield, Mass., and from Harvard College where he prepared for the ministry. Gould served in the American Revolution and was in the Battle of Lexington in April, 1775. Married three times, he had no children that lived more than a few months.

Gould was in his forties when he came to Bethel in 1798 as a candidate for the pulpit of the Congregational Church. He was accepted for that post in 1799 and received as a salary $160 to be raised each year until it reached $200 (one third to be paid in cash, the remainder in farm produce), plus $150 worth of labor. He was installed as the first settled minister in Bethel on Oct. 9, 1799. A continued on Page Eight

M. S. A. D. #44 Directors' Meeting

The Board of Directors of S. A. D. #44 met on Monday evening of this week at the Andover Elementary School.

The Board accepted the resignation of Raymond Miclon as teacher of Physical Education at the elementary level. Mr. Miclon has been associated with the S.A.D. #44 schools since September of 1973. Also accepted was the resignation of Marie Merrill as an instructional aide at the Andover Elementary School. Both resignations are effective at the close of the current school year. Authorization was granted to the Superintendent of Schools to post vacancies in the positions.

A S.A.D. #44 Adult Education Budget for the 1983-84 school year was approved by the Board. The budget provides for an expenditure of $25,500, requiring a local appropriation of $3,705. The Adult Education Budget will be acted upon in a separate article at the Annual District Budget Meeting on Monday evening, May 23, at the Telstar Auditorium.

The Board approved an application for federal matching funds to facilitate conversion to solid fuel at Crescent Park School. The estimated expense for the conversion to a multi-fuel system is $45,000. Contingent upon the availability of federal monies, the Board approved the expenditure of $22,500 of FY 83 funds as the local share of the project.

In the event that a building project is reactivated for Woodstock elementary facilities, the Board continued on Page Four

FORMER "OPERA HOUSE" BLOCK BEING RENOVATED

Work started recently at the former "Opera House" which is being converted to condominiums. Ronald Fitch, the owner, plans to have six units on the ground floor and six on the second floor, with a manager's apartment and possibly two more units in the basement. He states that each unit will consist of a combination living/dining/kitchen area, a full bath, and a sleeping loft. The electrically heated and completely furnished units are for recreational purposes since their design and size are not meant for year-round living.

The model unit now under construction will, upon completion, be viewed by the Bethel Planning Board before approval of the total project.

The building, constructed in 1884 by Edwin C. Rowe with a general store on the ground floor and Ideal Hall upstairs was purchased by Mr. Fitch from Webber Oil Co. of Bangor.

Prior to its short existence as the Opera House, a bar and eating establishment, the building, the outside appearance of which will not be changed except for installation of smaller windows on the first floor front, was the Bethel offices of Juice Oil Co., Ruth Carver Ames and Irving L. Carver, Shell Oil distributors.

Mr. Fitch, an airline pilot, resides in Sufield, Conn.

—Eveline B. Vatcher, Corres.—

Mother's Day was a beautiful day for all Mothers everywhere and I sincerely hope that they enjoyed the day with their loved ones and families. We went out for dinner and as went by the many eating places, there were long lines of people standing in line waiting for their turn to enter. Business was booming everywhere, or so it seemed. It is so good to have some lovely weather after so much rain. My husband was in the garden the better part of the week, and he was happy.

It has been like "Old Home Week" at Joe Vatcher's house the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cooke of Lynn, Mass., and Bridgeton, called Monday, also Rev. Roland Lord, the water filter man from Lewiston, "Root" Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Abbott and Jo-Anne, Susan Lyons, Doris Lawrence, Herbert Stevens, and Saturday evening the Mollycoddett Sportsman's Club held their monthly meeting at our house with Mr. and Mrs. George Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Carlwright, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Penley Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Warren Emery, Joe and Eveline Vatcher, and two children present. The meetings were recessed until September unless a special meeting is needed. After the meeting light refreshments were served.

The Community Club held their meeting at the Vatchers' home Wednesday evening. What with smelling, diet classes and other commitments, we had a small turnout but transacted quite a bit of business. We voted to set our monthly supper ahead one week for this month so as not to conflict with our next Town neighbors and their dates. Ours will be on May 14 instead of May 21. Many who have come to our last two suppers have liked the new look in the hall. It looks longer and larger and it looks very nice. We are anxious to get some flashy new drapes to break up the white. It takes time.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lyons have a new car and Susan says it is fun to drive.

"Root" Lawrence received word that his brother, Elmer Lawrence of East Stoneham went to go out on the back porch, fell when he had a heart attack and broke his leg in three places. He is at the Northern Cumberland Memorial Hospital in Bridgton and was taken out of intensive care on the week end. It's hard to get old, but we all seem to be getting on that way. Calling at Lawrence's: Arnold Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Card, Joe and Eveline Vatcher, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Abbott and Jo-Anne.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Lyndell Farr is home from the Hospital and we hope she will be better from her hospital treatment.

Mrs. Rhoda Vatcher is with her daughter, Mrs. Helen Berthold and family for a few weeks, in Sausalito, Mass., while her daughter will be hospitalized.

The smelters have been busy for the past week, going to Magalloway and other places near there and the smelts are worth going after, so I did not mind cleaning them and eating them. One thing I would like to know. Which is worse, to be a football widow or a smelt widow? With smelting it is all done after dark, but football does have some daylight hours, so I figure that isn't so bad. But no matter which one is worse, I seem to be surviving. If anyone should carry me off, they will surely bring me back when it comes morning and they see who they have. Am I lucky?

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vatcher went to Danvers, Mass., to see Mrs. Fannie Vatcher on Tuesday but were unable to take her out as

OXFORD POMONA #2

Oxford Pomona held a special meeting at Bear River Grange, Newry on April 30 in honor of Grange Week which ended that date. Due to the fact there were several open house meetings on that date, attendance was less than was expected. Pomona was honored with a visit from the State Grange Lecturer, Clyde Berry.

The musicians were Laura Hutchins and Carl Brooks who gave some numbers on Laura's faithful "squeeze-box," and Carl's bones, which he rattles cleverly. Proclamations from the National Grange were read by Master Lewis Marcotte.

Other numbers on the program: Welcome; song by all; reading of an original poem, "The Grange, What is it?" by the Lecturer, Olive Davis. Then the chairmen of the important committees spoke on "How the Grange touches your life." Speakers were Myrtle Bisbee, pinch hitting for Kitty Davis who was absent; Youth, Scott Lewis; Agriculture, Russell Yates; Legislation, Nestor Tamminen and a bit on education by the Lecturer. The State Lecturer spoke about the contest the Lecturers are to do.

Speaker for the evening was Bill Williams, Deputy from the Sheriff's department for towns surrounding Bethel, substituting for Alton Howe, who was unable to attend. Mr. Williams explained the workings of their duties as law officers and answered questions from the audience. He was presented the community award for the Sheriff's Department, showing appreciation of their work in Oxford County.

Russell, Viva and Peggy Yates put on one of Russell's delightful skits which always end with a good punch line.

"People can be Revived," a safety reading on lightning striking human beings, was read.

The closing thought was "Life is like a bicycle: Stop pedaling and fall off." "Count Your Blessings" was the song chosen to close the meeting.

A subordinate Honor Lecturer Linda La Bree, from New Sharon was recognized and spoke a few words. There were 35 present.

Oxford Pomona met with West Paris Grange on May 3 with 71 in attendance.

Honored guests were Deputy Chester Hayes, Winthrop Grange, N. H.; Deputies Erlend and Margaret Wentzell, Cumberland-Oxford Union Grange; Pomona Deputies, Brother and Sister Conant; Subordinate Deputies, Myrtle and Lewis Bisbee. The C.W.A. chairman of the C.W.A. Com., Kitty Davis had the judging of the molasses cookies contest before supper: winners were, for the women, 1st, Lyndell Farr, West Paris; 2nd, Gail Butterfield, Lakeside, and 3rd, Ellen Barker, Crooked River Grange.

The men: 1st Sam Soucy, Oxford; 2nd Lewis Woodworth, Paris; and Frank Rackliff, Pleasant Pond Grange. One member came in by demit. The 5th degree was conferred on five candidates. There was no program because of the degrees. Brothers Chester Hayes and Erlend Wentzell were called upon. The Lecturer gave the thought "Life is not so short but that there is always time for courtesy."

The next meeting will be at Franklin Grange Memorial services and election of officers will be carried out. Rebecca Jasud will speak on her trip to Wyoming.

planned, as she wasn't feeling too good. They had dinner with Robert and David Anderson in Burlington, Mass. When they got home they found a peck of troubles. The spring didn't release on the water filter so the water ran through all day and the septic tank was full, and water in the cellar, so the mister was busy for a bit.

Harlan Abbott has his new teeth and they make him look younger. Now he can eat steak to beat the band.

Another wet, dark Monday morning. We washed on Sunday so we are all set. I'm glad that I don't have a lot of small children to wash for when it rains so much.

Gilead Tales—a Century Past

In the late 1890's, two men came to Gilead, and worked together and "learned the trade." (as was so often said in those days) and were employed by the prosperous mill man, lumberman and merchant, Mr. J. W. Bennett.

They were Charles H. Cole of Raymond, and W. C. Bryant of Bethel, they both were accepted, apparently, well by their employer and the public, as Mr. Bryant later went on to join his father, Mr. Chauncey C. Bryant in the operation of what was to become later Bryant's I.G.A., and then operated by Myron Bryant and Son in Bethel.

Mr. Cole, having learned the store trade, was sent up to "Scratch Corner," Shelburne, N. H., to supervise the closing down of Mr. Bennett's operations there. He told me of "the moving of the

Several members of the B.E.A.R.S. were testing First Aiders at Bryant Pond Tuesday, May 10. This was for their state licence. Safety Tip of the Week

Home safety for little ones will be a continual topic for several weeks to come. This week is Garage and Basement Safety:

These are great hide and seek places but:

1. Never leave car keys in the ignition.
2. Keep paint and garden supplies on a high shelf.
3. Keep gas out of reach.
4. Hang rakes and other implements on the wall with times or blades up.
5. Never put paint remover or other inedible substances in soda bottles or other containers a child would recognize as coming from the kitchen. They could drink or eat something harmful to them.

six mill houses" from there to Gilead, with eight horse teams over the ice of the Androscoggin River! Quite an operation!

Incidentally, one of these houses is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald (Louise) Loring, your Gilead correspondent.

Richard Douglass, Bethel, delivered and spread a nice load of crushed gravel on the Cole Cemetery Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gagne of Sanford were week end visitors at their cottage on Wild River.

Quite a battle was held on Wild River this past week. Mr. Giant Osprey came in with the intent of staying awhile, but was promptly routed by Mr. Kingfisher, the crows and tree swallows.

A wet chilly morning but we did have a lovely Mother's Day even though they predicted rain. I haven't heard differently so suppose George is now heading for Florida.

I Will Not Hurry

I will not hurry through this day! Lord, I will listen by the way To humming bees, and singing birds

To murmuring trees and friendly words; And for the moments in between Seek glimpses of Thy Great Unseen.

I will not hurry through the day I will take time to think and pray; I will look up into the sky Where fleecy clouds and swallows fly;

And somewhere in the day, maybe I will catch whispers, Lord from Thee!

South Woodstock

Olive Davis, Corres.

Several attended the special town meeting on lights Tuesday, May 9 at Bryant Pond.

This has been a Grange week. We were at Bear River Grange for Open House in honor of Grange Week for Oxford Pomona. Monday afternoon there was a rehearsal for Degree work for Pomona.

Tuesday night we met at West Paris and put on that Degree for five candidates. Monday night we were at Franklin Grange for the Visiting Lecturer's night. Then on Thursday noon the Franklin Grange members put on the Senior Citizens dinner. On the seventh some will be attending the Junior installation, called at Oxford Grange in Welchville. Jenny Felt is one of the officers to be installed.

Frank Knox and Dale Buck are putting some foundations in at Olive Davis' home this week.

Shirley Davis is home from Togo and gaining from his operation.

The lawn at the church has been staked out and I hope, seeded. The rain should help it.

Mr. and Mrs. Kip Libby arrived Wednesday from Florida for a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Schroer and family.

The plants and seedlings have begun to grow at last. They have been standing still for quite a while. If we could get some good sun we would all feel better.

Esther Davis was up here with me for dinner. She brought most of the dinner. We enjoyed visiting while in the afternoon.

Esther Davis has a new hobby. She is reading on tapes for blind people. This is a voluntary service and wouldn't you know Esther would be doing her bit to make others happy.

Pearl Benson is still in the hospital at Norway. I hope we can shower her with cards. It's no fun being ill.

Mrs. Leon Verrill and two daughters, Beverly and Evelyn were in Lewiston Thursday.

Here are two boys we can be proud of. Tom and Alan Verrill were inducted into the National Honor Society at Telstar Regional High School Wednesday night. The parents were invited to attend and were served supper preceding the ceremonies.

I wish the young folks would respect themselves and their parents enough to do what is right and not be led around by the nose by some who are leaning in the wrong direction. Be a leader, not a follower and try to do what is right at all times. The motto at Gould Academy when I attended there was "To thine own self be true." It still holds today. "Then thou cannot be false to any man" is the rest of that thought. Think about it.

THANKS

The exclusive members of Cub Scout Den 2, Pack 568, wish to express their greatest thanks (this comes deep from the stomach) to the great folks of Georgia's Dari Treat for the grand tour last Thursday. We were amazed to see where and how those delicious Dari Treats are created.

Many delicious thanks to Georgia from all of us at Den 2.

Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres.

May 8, and Mother's Day, and from an old song of my high school days, which my room mate used to sing, this "You'll only have one mother though you travel the wide world o'er. Of friends you'll have a multitude and sweethearts you'll have a score. But no one can take her place for you when she is gone from here. So give her all that's best in you and keep her full of cheer."

How much the word describes a long and dear friend, who for many years lived here in town and was a near neighbor; Edla W. Lhelmiina Laaksonen (Tammien).

She was born May 7, 1895 at Ruonani Kyla, Lapin Pitaja, Turun ja Porin Laani Tuomi, Finland. Her first visit to America was at the age of 14. She stayed only long enough to earn ticket fare back to Finland. But she came again in 1921 and has never returned to her Finland. She came from a family of eight children, six brothers and one sister. Her youngest brother and she are the only survivors. He is still in Finland. She is a young 88. Several of us visited her at Ledgeview to enjoy her friendship and that of her daughter, Helen, her granddaughter, and great granddaughter, four month old Marianna. It is always heart warming to see her love for children and her friends.

"Soft hair makes a sort of frame around her quiet face."

A heart at peace with all the world.

Content with simple things. She holds within her quiet rooms "The best that heaven brings."

Those that visited her from here were: Elita Morris, Doris Hayes, Katie Tammien, Fay Holt and Colista Morgan.

Right here I must tell you how near Edla came to having an unexpected visitor. As I was about to enter the car to go, something circled my head, came straight down and settled in the center of a crocheted, bright red rose, which I had in my hand as a decoration to a package. He nestled so big and yellow in the folds, then disgustingly flew away! Too bad, Bumble Bee, that you were so deceived.

We wish you, Edla, health and love until your 89th when we hope to share another birthday cake with you.

On one of the pleasant days I started for a short hike up over the hill into the shadows of ridges and dusk of the forest.

The flowers are fast appearing. I saw trout lilies, trilliums, blueets, and Dutchman's Breeches. There is something singularly fragile about this heart-shaped blossom nodding from ledges where they thrive best.

I followed a brook after climbing for a while and it expressed its laughter and airy gladness at its freedom.

I sat down on a tree trunk to listen and the sun was warm on my back. I watched the distant cloud-play. Sometimes they rolled about the horizon in great masses, with tiny clouds breaking away to run alone. At other times they would hold or just swing.

I traveled to a brown carpeted area, not for sale, but could be had for just a walk into the lonely woodland.

There were wet places for the spring rains had filled the hollows.

Out across the valley the splash of maple-red was bright against the green. One would just know it is spring. May with its growth, its mellow charm, its sky more genial, and its lucid green world reaching toward the sun. Year after year we listen and we watch for this month to guide us to another season.

A gathering of several of the children of Fred and Rena Curtis came to their home to meet their mother on Mother's Day. There were 21 for a pot luck dinner.

Doris Hayes spent Sunday in Gray with her son, Glenn, and family. On Saturday her sons, Duane, and family, West Paris; and Ardell and Betty, Auburn, were there.

We joined the family of Leonas and Fay Holt at the farm: David and Sally, Dexter; Robert and Jeri and three children, Windsor; Ann of Bethel, Rena and Vance Bacon, West Paris, came, also Bernard Morgan, Sunday.

Our callers were George and Lucy Ridley, Norway; Jacob and Barbara Immonen, West Paris; Denise and Joshua Adams, Local.

Mrs. Sheryl Barnard is visiting her parents the Albert Nelsons, for a few weeks before going with her husband to Germany for four years.

Errol Barker spent his 87th birthday quietly at his home Friday. He was remembered by his many friends with cards.

Voters of S.A.D. 44:

As a taxpayer in the district I am as concerned about continually increasing taxes as you are. I am also concerned about the welfare of the young people of our district.

It was my understanding that this school district was formed 15 years or so ago, for two main reasons. First, to provide a public high school for Bethel area students, and secondly, to improve or replace many of the existing wooden school buildings that, for one reason or another, were not considered safe or efficient for use.

The first goal has been realized with a central building to house high school and middle (junior high) school students. Work on the second goal has progressed very slowly. The small, and perhaps inefficient, buildings in Greenwood and Newry have been closed and those students shipped to Bethel to school. Much work has recently been done to the Andover building, with more improvements planned for the near future.

Despite attempts to improve it, the building at Woodstock remains inefficient. The blown in insulation has done little to stop the heat from escaping and the cold from entering around the rattling windows. Covering oil soaked floors with carpeting has not decreased the fire hazard or made it any easier for students with crutches, casts or braces to carry meal trays to their third floor classrooms.

Good teachers are the most important thing for a good education and Woodstock is fortunate to have some very dedicated and caring teachers. A safe, pleasant environment is also necessary.

I feel that it is time for a new, safe building for these, our youngest, most vulnerable leaders of the future.

Sincerely,
Sally Sawyer,
Woodstock

M.S.A.D. #44 BOARD MEETS

The Board's Buildings and Grounds Committee and the Ad Hoc Solid Fuels Committee collectively recommended the action taken by the Board concerning the Crescent Park School and the possible building project at Woodstock. Application for federal matching funds to make possible a conversion to solid fuel at Andover Elementary School, and a conversion to solid at S.A.D. 44 expense, was not recommended by the committee. The Board followed the committee recommendations and declined to approve solid fuel conversions at the Andover school and at the Bus Garage.

An executive session of the Board was held to discuss matters pertaining to negotiations.

Board member John Haines of Greenwood was not present Monday evening.

The next session of the S.A.D. 44 Board is scheduled for Monday evening, May 23, at Telstar Regional High School, following the Annual District Budget Meeting.

Walking With Jesus Christ

Imagine if you will that at life's end — our earthly existence — to come upon a vast multitude of people and all carrying a basket — heading toward an intersection or cross road — and in their baskets was the one item of most importance in their lives.

At this cross road there was a traffic director at whose right hand there was a single road going uphill to a sparkling river of living water. While at his left was a wide road that ran down hill — which road in turn split into a large number of twisting rock-filled pathways strewn with deadly snakes and creatures of that sort. At the end of each there was a reddish hue with clouds of black smoke issuing forth.

Now upon approaching the traffic director there were some with apprehension — some with make believe confidence — others with a terrible sense of guilt — all staggering under whatever was in their baskets. Now then, all the above had clothing in tatters — shoes badly worn and everyone in need of a cleansing bath — both rich and poor alike.

Among these of the multitude — but a part off were some, a few — strange as it may seem wearing white garments, robes clean and shiny — carrying in one hand a scroll bearing a name — each different — a new name, unknown to them before — while in their bas-

"Anger — a Poison Tree." Of the ingredients necessary for "Peace of Mind," anger is not one of them. "Shun suspicion and resentment," it is suggested in a Duke University study, for "nursing a grudge . . . pulls down happiness levels an average of 50%." "We'll focus on anger and resentment — a very real problem for many of us, myself included," writes Rev. Glenn Turner as he prepares his sermon for this coming Sunday entitled "A Poison Tree: a sermon on anger."

The service will be held at the Bryant Pond Unitarian Universalist Church on Sunday, May 15, 10:30 a.m. Rev. Glenn Turner is the District Minister of the Northeast District of the Unitarian Universalist Association.

The service will be followed with refreshments in the Fellowship Hall. Any refreshments brought will be greatly appreciated.

The Universalist Unitarian Church does not have a creed or doctrine. It is committed to freedom of belief, and welcomes the opportunity to worship and discuss with people of different religious persuasions.

Safety Tip of the Week
The state recently passed a child car seat protection law. Children under five must be restrained in a moving vehicle. Although the law doesn't go into effect until September, it is for the safety of your children. Why not get into the practice now of insisting a child sits in an approved car seat if under five and seat belted if five or older.

Gardens; Parents; National Geographic; Newsweek; Ladies Home Journal; Country Living; Consumer Reports; Prevention; and Good Housekeeping. Anyone wishing the Library to continue subsidizing the fine family magazine, come in and check it out! There are also some magazines to take out and keep . . . FREE!

Summer hours have begun at the Library. The hours are Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, 1:30 to 4:30, and Thursday evening, 6 to 8.

These were joyfully greeted by the director who sent them to the right of him — through the narrow gate to a road that was rough at first but then led upward through green pastures toward a beautiful city with streets of gold from whence came forth shouts of great joy!

However the greatest majority of the travelers were shunted off down the hill and directed through a wide gate to a broadway that led to various pathways — the one best suited to their way of life on earth. Their baskets contained such things as adultery — drunkenness — fornication — jealousy — wrath, idolatry and the like. There was mass confusion — pleading — arguments — crying, such an uproar it shook the very gates of hell toward where they were headed. But to no avail, the director was firm — preventing anyone from jumping the fence or crawling beneath it, for them it was too late. Matt. 25: 32-46.

A fantasy? Something to think upon.

Jesus Christ said — "I am the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh unto the Father but by me. John 14:6.

"Enter in at the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be who go in that way — because narrow is the gate, and hard is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there are who find out." Matt. 7: 13, 14.

ROBERT CHADBOURNE IS ELECTED VICE PRESIDENT MFPC AT MAY 6 MEETING

Fred E. Huntress Jr., a consulting forester for the New England Forestry Foundation, and Robert Chadbourne of the P. H. Chadbourne & Co., were elected President and Vice President respectively Friday morning, May 6 at the 22nd Annual Membership meeting of the Maine Forest Products Council (MFPC).

Huntress, a resident of Poland Spring, has been a member of the MFPC since 1979 and Vice President for two years. He succeeds Hollis A. Hanington Jr., a logging operator from Wytopitock.

Chadbourne, who manages the timberlands operation of the Chadbourne Company, has been a director since 1975.

Both men assume their new duties for the statewide association of landowners, loggers, processors and truckers at the start of the dinner banquet at the Bethel Inn following an extensive woodlot and mill tour for legislators and members of the MFPC.

The annual elections also resulted in nine new directors on the 27-member Board of Directors which operates the organization, according to Executive Director Bob Chaffee.

Elected to three-year terms on the Board were: Ed Cummings of the C. B. Cummings hardwood mill in Norway; Greg Cyr of Cyr Lumber and Logging in Portage Lake; Conrad Eastman of Western Maine Forest Nursery in Fryeburg; Rodney Fitch of the Georgia-Pacific Corporation in Woodland; Paul Jonkes, a logger from Brownville; Al Kaufman, a logger from Nobleboro; Jim Mason, logger-trucker from Monmouth; Mike Robinson of the Sherman Lumber Company in Patten; and Bob Withrow, Woodlands Manager for Boise-Cascade in Rumford.

The MFPC is the only organization of its kind in the Northeast U. S. because it combines memberships from all sectors of the forestry community and affiliated service firms in order to represent forestry interests at state and federal governmental levels.

THIS WEEK AT THE MOSES MASON HOUSE

The fourth Annual Faye Taylor Memorial Art Show will be held at the Moses Mason House on Saturday, May 28, 1983 with all S.A.D. 44 and Gould Academy students invited to participate. Cash prizes will be awarded in two divisions (Grades 1-6 and Grades 7-12) and there will be an adult cash prize for the Faye Taylor Memorial Landscape Award, open to any Bethel area adult. Paintings in any medium (crayon, oils, tempera, water color, chalk, pen & ink, etc.) will be considered. All art work should be at the Moses Mason House by 5 p. m. May 27 to be considered by the judges.

The art show sponsored each year by the Moses Mason Museum and the Bethel Historical Society honors the late Faye Taylor who was a local artist and founder of the Bethel Historical Society. For further information, please call the Bethel Historical Society office at 824-2908.

In observance of National Historic Preservation Week it might be well to mention that the Bethel Historical Society has for the past few years been collecting a wealth of technical information on historic preservation. Any one residing in a house or with questions regarding preservation or conservation of a specific aspect is welcome to the Society's holdings for information. The collection is continually growing with the addition of numerous publications to which the Society subscribes including "Historic Preservation," "Museum News," "Preservation News," and "History News."

New member this week is Barbara Craig of Northwest Bethel.

One hundred years ago the "Oxford Democrat" for May 1, 1883, reported "About two inches of snow fell this morning." There also was "a good run of sap on Swan Hill." Notwithstanding the maple sugar business was reported to be "a complete failure." The reporter continued: "Sugar orchards which have produced in years past from 75 to 100 gallons of syrup, have this spring not much more than 20 to 30 gallons."

"Samuel Stowell, who has kept the record for over 50 years past of the number of feet of snow which has fallen each winter, reports about ten feet fell the past winter."

The "Democrat" also reported the following item:

"The piece of land, containing about 17 acres, known as part of the estate of Dr. Mason, situated between Broad and Chapman Streets was purchased last week by Mrs. Ellen M. Chandler of the Bethel Savings Bank. It is now proposed to open a street from Broad Street near the residence of Mrs. C. S. Littlehale (1883 the Moses Mason House) to Chapman Street, near George Plaisted's house."

The "Oxford Advertiser" for May 11, 1883 reported that the "firm of Woodbury, Purinton & Co. have purchased the lot of land next to the railroad, where the store of Charles Mason burned, and propose to build a large building for a potato house, grain elevator and steam mill." With this news the "late firm of Swan and Hammon collapsed and is now cancelled." It was reported that "Mr. Josiah Purinton has bought the lot of land on which the grave stone manufactory stands which will give a splendid addition to his already capacious front yard."

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

The weekly Bethel Rotary Club meeting was held on Tuesday, May 10 at the Sudbury Inn. Many favorable comments were voiced in regards to the very good support displayed by area residents in participating in the annual Rotary Spring Dance last Saturday. The Rotary Club thanks one and all for supporting this fund-raiser.

The scheduled speaker for this week could not meet with the Club and as a substitution Bob Chadbourne invited all Rotarians to join with him to tour one of Chadbourne's wood-clearing operations. Log harvesters, whole tree chippers, and other machinery was operated and demonstrated.

Dave Preble is the program chairman for the May 17 meeting. He will give his classification speech for this program.

As a reminder, the Rotary Club is in need of items for the Mollie Ockett Day Auction. Any Rotarian will take your call and arrange to pick up usable items for the auction.

FROM THE BETHEL AREA HEALTH CENTER

The deadline is past for mailing in responses to the Bethel Area Health Center survey. Center staff is delighted with the many responses and thank those who took the time to fill the survey out and return it. Both the praise and the criticism that is received will be tallied by the volunteer patient care committee. The committee which consists of Debbie Adams, Warren Bouchard, Elissa Thibodeau, Becky Shaw and Shirley Powell (staff person from the health center) will make the survey results public as soon as possible.

The committee plans to use the responses from the questionnaire to help provide guidance in those areas in which they may want to consider changes and strengthen those areas where there is a pattern of expressed concerns.

The overall goal of both the patient care committee and the Bethel Area Health Center is to continue to bring a high level of medical care to the Bethel area along with educational programs that meet the needs of area residents.

School juniors, among Maine's most academically talented students, will take part in the fifth annual Maine School's Day at the University of Maine at Orono, May 23 and 24. Lisa Newell, Stephanie Smith and Michele Sweetser are among 550 students from 138 high schools in Maine selected to attend Scholars Day by their guidance counselors based on their academic ability. Those students attending the two days of special interest programs, through tests will have an opportunity to compete for scholarship awards on the basis of those test scores. Scholarships range from full tuition to quarter tuition at U.M.O., and are available when the students enroll at U.M.O. in the fall of 1984.

STATE OF MAINE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

District 63

Karen L. Brown, Representative

May 6, 1983

The Taxation Committee has been hearing numerous bills designed to increase tax revenues for either the State or local municipalities. My committee has approximately 85 legislative drafts that propose these changes in the tax system. We have only a few more weeks to resolve these and give each consideration prior to making recommendations to the members of the House and Senate.

I will review a couple of these for you that no position has been taken as yet.

L.D. 510 — "Removes cigarettes from sales tax exemptions and increases revenue sharing from 4% to 5% of sales, individual and corporate income tax". The excise tax on cigarettes was increased to 16 cents in 1978 when they cost about 35 cents a pack. A pack costs about 80 cents in 1982, thus the tax has dropped from 60% to 20% of the price. Estimated revenues from removing the sales tax exemption on cigarettes is $4 1/2 million, or about 25% of current revenue sharing funds.

Other tax legislation that we are reviewing that comes from the Portland Alternative Revenue Task Force are: (1) A general 19% sales tax increase on all merchandise; (2) A 2% meals and lodging tax; (3) A 7% tax on entertainment activities; (4) A 1% earnings tax with 60% of this staying in Portland and the balance going to the municipality in which the worker resides.

Town Manager who has been discussing this matter with Androscoggin Valley Council of Governments. After considerable discussion, the Board voted to establish an Airport Development Advisory Committee with the following charter: (a) refining and monitoring the local, state, and federal dollar process; (b) developing a schedule of work and monitoring its progress; (c) propose for implementation economic development plans for the airport (including plans for marketing the lots); (d) update determinations of whether specific airport development projects are needed.

The Board further agreed that the Airport Development Advisory Committee should have representation from the following groups: (a) Bethel businessmen; (b) Bethel Aviators Group/airplane owners; (c) Airport Advisory Committee; (d) so-called opposition group; (e) non-aligned. Selectmen proposed names and directed the Manager to contact the individuals to see whether they would be willing to serve. Following final Board approval, perhaps as early as May 16, the new committee will begin its activities. To aid in early efforts Androscoggin Valley C.O.G. will act as technical advisors at no cost to the Town.

Police Policy

Some background information might be helpful. The 1983 Police Dept. budget totals $28,054, or about 2% of the Town's total expenditures. The Police Chief's salary and wages paid to part-time officers, constables, animal control officer and the school crossing guard accounts for $22,854 and is the largest item in the Police Department's budget. Remaining funds are budgeted for police car gasoline and maintenance, operating supplies and uniforms, communications equipment maintenance, and insurance.

Around the clock police protection by on-duty Bethel personnel is not permitted because of personnel and budgetary limitations. Normally an officer is on duty for one eight hour shift a day. While County Sheriff's Deputies and State Troopers may be called in emergencies, it should be noted that response times are often delayed because of geographic separation.

Recognizing these and other limitations might be impacting on the ability of the police to perform their mission of protecting the rights of all people and preserving the basic peace of the community, the Board voted in February to review police activities and construct police policy. Such a policy will define the course, or plan, of action based on principles to be stated and used as guidance in the preservation of the public peace, seeing that all laws and ordinances are enforced by the detection and suppression of crime and that violators are apprehended and prosecuted according to our judicial process.

Taking the first step in the development of police policy in the workshop meeting, the Selectmen listed several "limitations" on police protection dictated by reality. These include budget limitations, church was later built on the bank of the Androscoggin near the present home of Richard Verville on Bridge Street.

Could was a jovial and pleasant fellow, ordinary in height and was near-sighted all his life. He possessed a rather worldly disposition and this inclination caused resentment among some of his parishioners. He also was not a particularly good preacher in the pulpit and grew increasingly unpopular with the people of Bethel. He was eventually dismissed from his post in Bethel and in 1815 accepted a similar position in Rumford where he lived out his days.

Miss Tibbetts maintained that his real contribution in Bethel was not his theological role but an education one. He was a leader in providing a good education to the young people of Bethel and of course achieved remembrance for posterity with his famed legacy for Bethel Academy that since 1842 has borne his name.

As this meeting was a joint one with the Greater Rumford Historical Society, Vice President Alden T. Kennett, who presided in the absence of the president, welcomed members of the organization to manpower, geographic and jurisdictional limitations, etc. The Safety and Law Enforcement Committee, via the Town Manager, was asked to develop concepts as a basis for a police policy with a target of June 15 for a first draft. Inputs from interested citizens and police officers will be solicited and meetings will be posted in this column in the near future.

Future Meetings

The Board of Selectmen will meet twice next week, Monday, May 16, and Wednesday, May 18, both at 7 p. m. in the Town Office Meeting Room. The agenda at Monday's regularly scheduled meeting will include acting on vic-tual and innkeeper license renewals. A special meeting on Wednesday will focus on developing the Board's list of priority projects for 1983. Interested citizens are invited to attend both meetings.

AT HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETING

the Moses Mason House during the business portion of the meeting. The Secretary, Mary C. Kenniston, read a letter from the Rumford Society inviting Bethel Historical Society members to the meeting on May 18 at the Rumford Center Meeting House to hear a presentation on Rev. Daniel Gould's career in Rumford from 1815 until his death in 1842. Mr. Kennett also announced the gift of the month was an engraving from Ralph Hall which will eventually be a central piece of equipment in the dark room the Society hopes to establish in the future. The Vice-President announced that the next meeting of the Society would be held on June 2 and will feature Paul McGuire of Gould Academy speaking on the subject "The CCC and the Maine Woods", 1983 marking the 50th anniversary of the Civilian Conservation Corps created in the early days of the administration of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Mr. Kennett also mentioned the large number of genealogically oriented organizations that are available to those qualifying for membership including the Sons of the American Revolution, the Daughters of the American Revolution, Mayflower Descendants and Sons of Colonial Wars, urging anyone interested to let him know and he would outline the details of joining. The Vice President presented life membership certificates to Stephen T. Seames of Locke Mills and Daniel and Rosalie Wight of Rumford and thanked them for their support and vote of confidence in the Bethel Historical Society.

A social hour and refreshments followed the presentation by Miss Tibbetts.
